

BUILDING GLOBAL COMMUNITY TOGETHER

YMCA International Conference

Hosted by the YMCAs of Mexico, Canada and the United States

October 26-29, 2011

San Francisco, California

Save the date

Join more than 350 colleagues from around the world in strengthening and celebrating the global Y Movement. Through workshops, keynote speakers, peer-to-peer interaction and cultural events, participants will learn to connect diverse populations by building bridges, fostering greater global engagement and promoting inclusive community development.

The 2011 International Conference will:

- Explore the role and responsibility of the YMCA in building global community
- Leverage the collective strength of the global YMCA Movement
- Provide leadership training for volunteers and staff
- Provide a forum to share best practices and models that effectively respond to diverse communities
- Promote and strengthen Y-to-Y partnerships both locally and nationally

Registration

Online registration will open in February 2011. The event registration fee includes all conference materials, events and most meals.

Early bird registration (February 1 – April 30, 2011):

$485

Regular registration (May 1 – August 31, 2011):

$535

Late registration (September 1 – September 30, 2011):

$585

The International Conference will take place at the Parc 55 Wyndham Union Square Hotel, located at 55 Cyril Magnin, San Francisco, California, 94102. The room rate for a single/double is USD159 per night plus tax. To make a hotel reservation, please call the Parc 55 at 1-800-595-0507 and mention "the Y" to receive the discounted conference room rate. Online registration for the YMCA International Conference will open on February 1, 2011. To register, visit <http://events.SignUp4.com/internationalconference>.

For more information, send an e-mail to intlconf2011@ymca.net.